Personal data we collect and store

What kind of data do we collect?

We mainly collect data obtained from you as a client, business partner or other stakeholder. You may provide us personal data, e.g., through emails or our website and platform services. We may also in some cases obtain personal data from our customers.

The processed personal data includes following types:

- basic information, such as name, address, email address, phone number, position in the organization and name of the organization,
- other information you provide us in our communications

The collected personal data are stored as long as it is necessary for the processing for the purposes mentioned in this notice. We regularly review the collected personal data and take reasonable actions to ensure that no incompatible, outdated or inaccurate personal data are stored with us.

Purpose of and legal basis for processing personal data

The data are processed for the purpose of

- performing and developing our applications, identity management and service center services and cloud infra services
- contacting and communicating with our clients and other stakeholders

The data are not used for profiling, and no automated decision-making is performed on the data.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files that can be used by websites to make a user's experience more efficient. The law states that we can store cookies on your device if they are strictly necessary for the operation of this site. For all other types of cookies we need your permission.

This site uses different types of cookies. Some cookies are placed by third party services that appear on our pages.

We use cookies to personalise content and ads, to provide social media features and to analyse our traffic. We also share information about your use of our site with our social media, advertising and analytics partners who may combine it with other information that you've provided to them or that they've collected from your use of their services.

You can at any time change or withdraw your consent from the Cookie Declaration by clicking the icon on the bottom left corner of our website.

Data security

We take appropriate technical and organizational measures against unlawful processing of your personal data. All collected personal data are stored in databases protected by encryption, firewalls, passwords and other technical measures. Only the personnel who need to process your personal data for the purposes mentioned in this notice have access to it.

Security has been added to our daily work processes. Every of our employees have participated to security trainings and we use software to keep our devices hardened against harmful code.

Website Security and Bot Protection (Cloudflare Turnstile)

We use Cloudflare Turnstile on our website to protect our forms and website services from spam, bots, abuse and other automated or malicious activity.

Cloudflare Turnstile may process technical signals such as IP address, browser and device information, user agent information, TLS fingerprint, sitekey and the website origin. These signals are used to distinguish human users from automated bots and to help keep our website secure.

Cloudflare acts as a service provider for this purpose when processing data on our behalf to protect our website. Cloudflare may also process certain signals to improve its bot detection capabilities, as described in Cloudflare's own privacy documentation.

For more detailed information on how Cloudflare handles this data, please consult the Cloudflare Turnstile Privacy Policy.

Disclosure of personal data to third parties

We do not sell or otherwise make your personal data available to any third parties. We don't use sub-contractors (e.g. IT service providers) that process personal data for us.

Right of access to personal data and right to rectification of data

You have the right to check what details about you have been processed by us. You also have the right to request the rectification of any incorrect or inaccurate data concerning you.

You have the right to request that we delete all the personal data we have about you. The GDPR requires the permanent removal of your contact from our database, including email tracking history, call records, form submissions and more.

Submit your request for access or rectification to dpo@weare.fi.

Right to forbid processing and deletion of data

You have the right to forbid the use of your details. Further, you have the right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your data. We will delete your data without undue delay. We may need to ask you to verify your identity.

Submit your request to dpo@weare.fi.

Right to lodge complaint with supervisory authority

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority (the Data Protection Ombudsman).

Changes to privacy notice

We are continuously developing our data protection policies and, therefore, may update this Privacy Notice from time to time. Updates may also be necessary due to changes in applicable laws and regulations.
